DUBAI

LOCAL CULTURE & ENVIRONMENT

BURJ KHALIFA OBSERVATION DECK

Located in the world's tallest building, the Burj Khalifa Observation Deck offers panoramic views across Dubai's skyline, coastline, and desert landscape. A visit to this iconic landmark provides a unique perspective of the city and its rapid transformation over the years, making it one of Dubai's most popular attractions.

BURJ PARK

Set between Burj Khalifa and the Dubai Fountain, Burj Park offers a peaceful escape within one of the city's most vibrant districts. Popular with residents and visitors alike, the park hosts a variety of cultural events, outdoor activities, and seasonal experiences throughout the year. Its walking paths, open lawns, and central setting make it an ideal place to relax, exercise, or enjoy the surrounding skyline.

ZABEEL PARK

One of Dubai's largest public parks, Zabeel Park offers expansive green spaces, walking and cycling paths, picnic areas, and family-friendly attractions. Home to the iconic Dubai Frame, the park combines recreation, culture, and outdoor activities in a central location. It is a popular destination for residents and visitors looking to enjoy nature, exercise, or spend time outdoors in the heart of the city.

D3 PARK, DUBAI DESIGN DISTRICT

A hub for creativity and community, D3 Park offers a unique outdoor setting within Dubai Design District. With open green spaces, walking paths, sports facilities, and waterfront views, it provides a welcoming environment for both relaxation and activity. Surrounded by the city's creative industries, the park reflects the innovative spirit that defines the district.

BAY AVENUE PARK

A popular green space in Business Bay, Bay Avenue Park offers a welcome escape from the pace of the city. With walking and jogging paths, cycling areas, playgrounds, and open lawns, it attracts residents and visitors looking to stay active or unwind outdoors. Surrounded by shops, cafés, and residential towers, the park serves as a vibrant community hub in one of Dubai's most dynamic neighbourhoods.

DUBAI MIRACLE GARDEN

One of Dubai's most popular attractions, Dubai Miracle Garden is home to millions of flowers arranged in vibrant displays and large-scale floral installations. Open seasonally, the garden offers visitors the opportunity to explore colourful landscapes, themed exhibits, and unique designs that transform the desert environment into a remarkable outdoor destination. Combining creativity, horticulture, and innovation, it provides a memorable experience for visitors of all ages.

AL QUDRA LAKES

Just beyond the city, Al Qudra Lakes offer a different side of Dubai. Peaceful waters, cycling trails, and native wildlife create a setting that feels worlds away from the skyline. Spend the morning birdwatching, explore the surrounding desert, or simply enjoy the stillness and open views.

AL FAHIDI
HISTORICAL NEIGHBOURHOOD

Discover a different side of Dubai at Al Fahidi Historical Neighbourhood. Wander through winding lanes, admire traditional wind tower architecture, and explore museums, galleries, and cultural spaces that bring the city's heritage to life. From local art to charming cafés, every corner offers a glimpse into Dubai's past.

PROTECTING DUBAI'S NATURAL SPACES

Wherever you explore Dubai's natural landscapes,
please help us preserve their beauty for future generations:

- Stay on marked paths and designated trails.
- Do not disturb wildlife, plants, or natural habitats.
- Respect protected areas and follow local regulations.
- Take all litter with you and dispose of waste responsibly.
- Avoid leaving any trace of your visit.
- Travel thoughtfully. Explore responsibly.
